The Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

FERPA affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. They are:

1. The right to inspect and review his or her education records within 45 days of the day the college receives a request for access. Students should submit written requests that identify the record(s) they wish to inspect to the registrar. The registrar will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected. If the records are not maintained by the registrar, the student shall be advised of the correct school official to whom the request should be addressed.

2. The right to request amendment of the student’s education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading. A formal request to have one’s record amended must be presented in writing to the registrar or the college official responsible for the record. The written request must state clearly the part of the record the student wants changed, and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading. If the College decides not to amend the record as requested by the student, the College will notify the student of the decision and advise the student of his or her right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.

3. The right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student’s education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent. One exception which permits disclosure without consent is disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by the College in an administrative, supervisory academic, research or support staff position (including law enforcement unit personnel and health staff); a person or company with whom the College has contracted (such as attorney, auditor or collection agent); a person serving on the Board of Directors; or a student serving on an official committee such as a disciplinary or grievance committee or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks. A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibility.

4. The right to file a complaint with the U. S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by Saint Luke’s College of Health Sciences to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the office that administers FERPA is:

   Family Policy Compliance Office
   U. S. Department of Education
   600 Independence Avenue,
   S.W. Washington, DC 20202-4605